Rockefeller Park Greenhouse

750 E. 88th Street, Cleveland

The day was sunny and hot. There was a display of award winning irises inside the greenhouse from a recent show. They were stunning! Although the greenhouse was beautiful, it was too hot to stay inside to sketch. Instead, the artists who came, Joan Milligan, Juanita Sweet, Char Dayton, Deb Johnson, Tom Evert, and Ellen Howard, decided to sketch out in the gardens. The grounds were just beautiful. It was so hard to choose a location to sketch. Three members gravitated to the Willott iris garden, two to the gazebo and one to a side garden. Rain threatened later but held off and they got their sketches and paintings done. The greenhouse is a must see!
