THANKS TO ONE AND ALL FOR A SUCCESSFUL CHRISTMAS PARTY

Our annual Christmas Party and Chinese Auction fundraiser was a success! Thanks to all of you who brought such tasty potluck dishes and donated items to the auction! There were about 55 guests who enjoyed the fun and fantastic food. We made $317 for our Scholarship Fund. A great time was had by all! Special thanks to East Shore United Methodist Church for the use of their facility. Also, very special thanks to Fritzi Sansbury for the festive decorations, to Carolyn Swaffield and others for helping in the kitchen, to Dennis & Kate McDonnell for making a special trip to Marc's for soda and punch, to Beth Kulcsar and Mike Wardrope & his children for helping with the Chinese Auction and to all the other folks who volunteered their time. Euclid Art gives special recognition and thanks to the following local businesses who generously donated merchandise or gift certificates for our auction. Please make an effort to patronize them when shopping or dining. They truly deserve our gratitude.

CITY HALL EXCHANGE

Our next City Hall Exchange will be Friday, January 18th at 10:00 a.m. At our Christmas party, Mayor Cervenik offered many compliments to our group and personally thanked the members of Euclid Art who choose to participate in the Exchange. He told us how much both he and the City Hall staff like our work and how much they appreciate having a chance to have local art hanging on their walls. This is your chance to get your work seen by a great many people who go to City Hall. Please try to be there and show off your talents to our fellow citizens. We are looking for larger pictures to hang in the lobby. Please R.S.V.P. to Lee Peters at 216-531-6349 or call him if you have any questions.

EAA MEMBER NEWS

Sadly, longtime member of Euclid Art, Marion Crobaugh passed away peacefully on December 18th. She was 98 years old. She was an accomplished artist and held various positions within EAA, including serving as Membership Chairman. Marion designed woman's dresses and painted scenes populated with ladies wearing the clothes she created. She was Helen Penza's sister-in-law. Our condolences go out to her family and friends.

Joanne Cartor sold a painting at the Breckenridge Village Show. Some lucky person received a very nice Christmas present. Congratulations, Joanne!

Martha Germano had two of her collage paintings accepted into the Ohio Collage Society. They were exhibited at Studio 2091 Gallery in Cuyahoga Falls. One sold. She is also exhibiting five collage paintings at the Arizona Art Gallery in Scottsdale, AZ until January 11th and she had one collage painting juried and accepted into the National Collage Society, exhibiting at the Mesa Contemporary Arts Museum in Mesa, AZ from December 14, 2012 to March 17, 2013. Congratulations Martha!

Carol Tinkler was "tickled pink" to tackle the job of making split pea soup and we're sure Thom was every bit as happy to take part in eating the tasty infusion, made all the more delicious with the delightful inclusion of the Honey Baked Ham bone along with a package of split peas, they won at the Christmas party's Chinese Auction. Yum!

As is our custom and in the spirit of the season, the Board of Directors of the Euclid Art Association authorized the club to make charitable donations to East Shore United Methodist Church, to the Euclid Hunger Center and to Breckenridge Village.

HEADS UP

Due to the Euclid Public Library putting in a new rug and re-arranging their furniture, our Spring Fine Art Show will be delayed until August. The Library will be using the room where we have our show as their staging area and their effort is expected to go through June. There will be more information at a later date. So, keep on painting!
