OCTOBER PROGRAM

The demonstration for the evening will feature the cartoon art of Len Thomas, aka "Aloysius". Len studied Advertising Art at Cooper School of Art in Cleveland and minored in Art at Hiram College where he majored in business. He started drawing at a very young age, but at age 19 while in the Service, he drew cartoons on sweatshirts depicting the humorous side of Army life. The sweatshirts were a big hit and sold for $5.00 apiece back in 1962. His 'editorial' and 'gag' cartoons have appeared in various local city papers over the years. He has had a varied and interesting career which, I'm sure, he will tell us all about! In addition to cartoons, Len is also an accomplished oil painter! Come and enjoy an evening of cartoon and art.

BIG THANK YOU TO OUR SEPTEMBER DEMONSTRATOR

What a fantastic opportunity for Euclid Art to hold our September meeting at the Apple Store, Eton Village. Apple invited us to use their state-of-the-art business conference center for Tom Woodman's presentation. We thank April Smith from Apple, along with the Apple team, including Chris Woodman for making this possible. And, of course, many thanks to Tom Woodman, our featured demonstrator, who showed us how he uses the iPad and Paper by 53 app to create art and architecture. For more on this meeting, visit the Demonstrations page on our website.

ART SHOW AT LAKE FARM PARK

The Lake Farmpark Show is fantastic! There are 83 pictures in the show. A lot of people worked very hard to set up the show and we thank them all, especially our show coordinator, Ellen Howard, Sue Lokar, May Halliday, Joan Milligan and the EAA Board. We also thank Denise Gressley and her staff at Lake Farmpark for making all this possible. And, thanks to Eileen Dorsey from 78th Street Studio who served as judge. Many of us enjoyed the 'Cookies & Cider' artist reception on Thursday evening. What a gorgeous fall night to be at the park!

We congratulate our Best of Show winner, Mary Alice Valvoda for her "Flight Though Time", a digital art photo collage on canvas. Interestingly, the only other digital art entry in the show also won an award! Ellen Howard's Paper by 53 sketch, "Hilton Infancy" won Honorable Mention. For the second year in a row, Dennis McDonnell had the best photograph, this year with 'She', a captivating image of butterflies. Congratulations to all our award winners. The winning pictures are yours to view on our website, thanks to Kirk Ramsey our webmaster. Better yet....stop by Lake Farmpark and see the show. It runs through November 1, 2015.
