PLANS FOR THE SUMMER AND BEYOND!

We're OFF for the Summer 'don't cha know' (i.e., no planned monthly meetings July & August), but that doesn't mean we aren't plotting and planning behind the scenes for the new season. A new challenge is happening this summer! It's "The Summer Trifecta Challenge". More on that below. Plus, the first monthly meeting of the new season is September 12, the first Monday after Labor Day. We are featuring an in-person demonstration by member artist, Suzette Cohen, demonstrating Gelli Printing. Fall workshops are set up, too...more on that under Workshops. But most importantly... We are having a Picnic in July! Our president, Lee, has personally been lobbying the EAA Board for the last few decades to have a summer picnic and this year we are finally going to have one! Yes, the Christmas party that got cancelled in December is coming in July! We had 16 members respond as interested. Enough for us to say "It's a GO!" Here's what's planned: Remember your family and friends are invited, too.

OUR LAST MEETING

Many thanks to artist, Christopher Leeper for his critique of members' art at our June 6 monthly meeting. The critique included the twelve images submitted by members, plus all the winners from our Virtual Spring Fine Art Show. He explained what drew him to the winning images. His comments were both informative and helpful to the 24 members who participated on Zoom. For more go to EuclidArt.com, the Events page or click here. The Euclid Art Association's Virtual Spring Fine Art Show is still available for viewing on the website.

EAA SKETCHERS

Time for the "The Summer Trifecta Challenge". Our program director, Joan Milligan, now residing in Nebraska, has come up with art activities, 'outside the box' to challenge us. The first challenge was given via a Zoom meeting on June 18 and will be revealed on Saturday, July 30. At the July meeting we'll share our work and get the second challenge. Then, at the August meeting we'll share our July work and get the third challenge, which we'll share in September. Come to any or all the meetings, held via Zoom. All are welcome to participate. Missed the first meeting? Then, click here or go to the Home page on EuclidArt.com to get the first challenge!

STILL LOOKING FOR A VOLUNTEER

We are also looking for an Assistant Program Director to work with Joan Milligan, a 'GO TO' for in-person meetings, someone to coordinate with the demonstrators and to introduce them at the meetings. Joan's contact information remains the same....email artsiegirl826@aol.com or cell 440-527-1917. Contact Joan to let her know you can HELP!

"Painting Paper with Gelatin Plate" with artist Suzette Cohen, Saturday, November 5, 2022. MEMBER NEWS

Congratulations to Suzette Cohen. Three of her drawings are in the Interpretations 100:Online Exhibition, celebrating the New Orleans Drawing Group Zoom's creative community, built through the Covid pandemic. It's a compilation of artwork created during weekly 3-hour Zoom Life Drawing sessions. Check it out!

Rozenia Cunningham's Art it Yourself Children Camp Annual Art Exhibit is at Euclid Public Library during the month of July. Congratulations to Rozenia. She received an award for her watercolor painting in the "We Wear the Mask" art competition sponsored by Cle4Equity. Her piece was exhibited at the AHA's Accelerating Health Equity Conference (Cleveland Hilton Hotel) and at Morning Star Baptist Church.

Cynthia Beacham, Deborah Johnson and Rozenia Cunningham participated as vendors selling their art at the Metrohealth Cleveland Juneteenth Freedom Fest and did quite well! Juneteenth is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery on June 19, 1865 - the day when all African Americans were freed from slavery.

CLOSING THOUGHT

"[Independence Day] will be the most memorable Epocha, in the History of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated, by succeeding Generations, as the great anniversary Festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the Day of Deliverance by solemn Acts of Devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with Pomp and Parade, with Shews, Games, Sports, Guns, Bells, Bonfires and Illuminations from one End of this Continent to the other from this Time forward forever more. – John Adams
