July 2023 Vol.66, No. 1

BUSY TIMES AHEAD

Welcome to summer, a very busy time for the EAA Board! Within a 3 1/2 week period, EAA has three major events! The Art & Rummage Sale is August 26, followed by the Celebration of Life for Lee on September 11 and the Lake Farmpark Fine Art Show in mid-September. Plus, there is membership renewal, creating the new membership booklet and planning for the 2023-2024 season! Oh, almost forgot, we need a new Vice President!

Did we hear you ask . . . how can I help? We could use your ideas, suggestions, and service. You are invited to attend the Tuesday board meetings. The next few meetings are Tuesday, June 27, July 11, July 18, from 10a.m. to 12:30p.m. at the EAA Gallery, 21129 North Street, Euclid. Don't be shy! Let Sue Herrle, Sandi Richards, Char Dayton, or Ellen Howard know that you will be there! Note: Rozenia can't always be with us because she is working at her Summer Camp. And Joan Milligan joins us from Nebraska, via Zoom or FaceTime! There is more information about these activities as you continue reading the this newsletter.

WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT LEE

Lee had no close family in the area...just lots of friends. EAA was his family, as was his Computer Club and his best friend for 50 years, Tom Zook. The coroner located a cousin, whose daughter, Lee's second cousin is handling his affairs. He was cremated, but we are not aware of any planned service. Mark your calendar for September 11 for Euclid Art's Celebration of Life for Lee. More details will be in the September newsletter. Please help us plan for this event. Share your ideas and stories about Lee. Contact any board member or email to info@euclidart.com.

MEET THE NEW PRESIDENT

Rozenia Cunningham served as Euclid Art's Vice President since 2015 and has now taken the reigns as President. Rozenia is an educator, art specialist, professional artist, illustrator, and children's author. Her love for the arts and ceramics grew as a child while she attended Cleveland School of the Arts and Karamu. She graduated from Central State University. Her continued passion for the arts led her to Notre Dame and Cuyahoga Community College to complete her studies in Art. Rozenia is a business owner and founder of "Art It Yourself" that specializes in art classes and summer camp, where she teaches and inspires children and adults in the art making process. Learn more and view her art on her Members Art Page.

WHY RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP NOW!

Because . . . you need to be a paid member to participate in the Members Art Sale in August and to enter the Lake Farmpark Show this fall. Plus the Christmas party has already been scheduled at the Lithuanian Club! Renew now, don't delay any longer! During July and August, we will be putting together our new Membership Booklet! We want your name in the booklet without an 'asterisk'...denoting 'not renewed'. Thanks to everyone who has already renewed.

The new season officially begins July 1 and goes through June 30, 2024. The cost of renewal remains the same - Single $25, Joint or Associate $30, Student $11. FREE perk of membership . . . get your own Members Art Page on EuclidArt.com. (How to details are on the website, Members Art Page.) Mail your check to Membership Chairperson, Char Dayton at 5143 Lynd Ave., Lyndhurst, OH 44124. Make your check payable to Euclid Art Association. Please include any updates to your contact information (address, home/cell phone, email address).

THANK YOU

We thank artist, Mary Ann Boysen for not only judging our Spring Fine Art Show but for doing our June Members' Critique Night. There were 25 pieces of art in the critique. Her comments ranged from 'intricate and well executed, love the energy and use of color' to 'break up repeated patterns, use more color in the faces' . . . plus lots more! We learned many valuable art tips. For more, go to the Demonstrations page on our website or click here. We also thank Eddie

Mitchell for his help in moving the art along. His ‘Vanna White’ impression was entertaining! Mary Ann also shared that there are free watercolor lessons on her website: <http://www.maboysen.com/> and many of her paintings can be seen at <https://fineartamerica.com/profiles/maryannboysen>.

Thank you to everyone who brought treats to share. A delightful table of goodies was enjoyed by all! The lovely peony centerpiece was from Terese’s garden.

ART & RUMMAGE SALE . . . HEADS UP!

Artworks, old wooden frames, art books and other assorted items collected over the last 65 years will be on sale at the Art & Rummage sale scheduled for Saturday, August 26, from 11:00a.m. until 4:00p.m. Members have the opportunity to set up ‘outside’ to sell their artworks during this widely advertised event . . . on the front lawn of the Euclid History Museum/EAA Gallery. Members will be able to unload in the driveway or from the street in front. We plan to have some ‘youngsters’ available to help! There’s a large parking lot across the street to park your car after unloading. You must register by the August 4 deadline. Click here for the registration form. More details in the flyer on the left.

EAA SKETCHERS

Here’s the next challenge for July and August . . . “The Faces of Lee”. Participants are asked to do a portrait of Lee in any medium, any style. The results will be presented at Lee’s Celebration of Life event on September 11. Lots of photos of Lee are posted on FB and EuclidArt.com or email Joan, artsiegirl826@aol.com and she will send you photos to use as reference.

LAKE FARM PARK FINE ART SHOW

Plans are underway for a fall fine art show at Lake Metroparks Farmpark. They have a beautiful hallway art gallery which gets lots of ‘foot’ traffic during the fall season. The actual show dates are September 19 to October 15, with the Monday dates (9/18 & 10/16) as drop off and pickup. Cookies & Punch reception is scheduled for Thursday, September 21 at 6:00p.m. Entry forms will be sent with the August newsletter. Time to get ready!

WORKSHOP

Don’t miss this AMAZING opportunity to learn from the absolute best watercolor artist and teacher, David Rankin. David’s Zoomshop intensive, “Using Paint-into-Wet Watercolor Brushwork” is scheduled for two consecutive Saturdays, July 8 and 15, 1 - 4p.m. We still have a few openings in this intermediate/advanced watercolor class. Contact Sue Herrle at suetom.herrle@sbcglobal.net. Details on the website.

MEMBER NEWS

Sandy Johnson has been creatively active in the last month. We congratulate Sandy on her many accomplishments. Her watercolor titled, “Lake Louise, Ohio” was accepted in the juried show at Cuyahoga Valley Art Center in their Floral and Landscape exhibition which runs from June 6 - July 13. Artist reception is June 30, 5:30 to 7:00p.m. Sandy is now a published writer! Her poem, “First Day” was included in the book, “Poem for Cleveland”. Sandy read her poem at the release event Saturday, June 24 at the Cleveland Public Library. The book is a chronicle of Cleveland through poetry.
